Are you looking
for books?

We need to know how they
want to communicate,
and we need books
in formats which they can access.

Do you know
DAISY multimedia
books ?

My daughter
has dyslexia...

But...the library didn't have a single DAISY multimedia book.

Read it yourself

as well as a computer which can be used to read them.

Every public library in Japan has a notice on the wall
which reads:

“It is the most important responsibility of libraries to offer collected materials and library facilities to the people who have the Right to Know as one of their fundamental human rights.”

Thank you
for your attention!
